

references

I have come to appreciate and love Bart as a fellow youth pastor in town who has a heart for teenagers! We have worked together to impact students in the Memphis area. He sees the big picture and is willing to work in cooperation with others! Bart's love for God, for His Word, and for students have combined to give him a vision for stepping out in faith to follow God's will! As I have seen Bart speak to students on campus, he displayed a passion for speaking the truth of God's Word in a relevant way. We also had the privilege of having Bart with our students at Bellevue. He connected with his audience. He'll connect with yours as well!

Gregg Hauss – Bellevue Baptist Church / Memphis, TN / Pastor to Senior High

I love Bart Lewis! He is a dear friend that I have been blessed to know as we have served for over three years together on staff at TLC church here in Memphis. Every time I hear Bart speak to students I am more and more impressed with his passion and unique ability to communicate to teenagers, college students, and even adults. I stand with Bart Lewis 100% in all of his ministry efforts!

Clay Crosse – 3-Time Dove Award Winner / Speaker, Author, & Founder of HolyHomes Ministries

Bart Lewis is a man I personally know as a friend, minister, and man of God. He has spoken at several of my Student events, one of my High School Summer Camps, and a young adult service for those ages 18-30. Bart has an incredible gift of communication; through his relevant technique of delivering the Word of God, he seems to penetrate the hearts of all listening. Whether it be students or adults, I have personally seen those listening moved to action- action that has bettered their relationship with Christ. His creative gifts in combination with his desire to communicate God's word effectively to all listening make him an easy choice for a speaker in any arena.

Stephen McKim - Christ Church / Bartlett, TN / Pastor to Students

Bart Lewis is wonderful communicator. Our church loves the way Bart integrates relevant popular culture themes and vocabulary with solid biblical theology. We have also been delighted to discover that Bart has the unique ability to appeal to a diverse audience. Our adults are always challenged by his content yet in a way that our teens and children find both understandable and engaging. If you have the opportunity to hear Bart speak, I am confident that you will leave regarding the occasion as a divine treat.

Dana Key – Pastor & Author / TLC Church / Lakeland, TN / Owner of Ardent Records / Rock band, DeGarmo & Key

"Bart is called to change the world. Over the years that I have known Bart and had the privilege to work with him, I've seen firsthand his commitment to live out his calling to shake up the current generation of teenagers to find their purpose and God given calling. He has the energy of a teenager, yet the wisdom of someone beyond his years. This combination makes him an effective, passionate speaker that will bring relevance and hope to this generation."

Steve Hooper - Founder & President, Uth Stuph & Stuph Clothing / Orlando, FL

I have seen Bart Lewis captivate the imaginations of youth, on a regular basis, for 15 to 20 minutes and longer. These teens drive...they don't have to come back, but they do. Why? Because God has given Bart the unique gift to communicate to youth in a way I've never seen before. They walk away with something real that they can use to be teenagers that are influential. There's a lot of speakers out there that are geared towards teenagers, but it's just different with Bart. There is something unprecedented about Bart's skill and confidence as a communicator.

Preston Davis - Parent of a teenager & Former DJ for FM100